Dear Shareholders,

Election of Means of Receipt and Language of Corporate Communications

Pursuant to the recently amended Bye-laws of Paliburg Holdings Limited (“Paliburg”) and the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Stock Exchange”) (the “Listing Rules”), future Corporate Communications (Note) will be made available to the shareholders of Paliburg (the “Shareholders”) by means of publication on Paliburg’s website in the manners as prescribed in the Listing Rules in lieu of the printed version thereof, with consent from, or by virtue of deemed consent on the part of, the Shareholders on individual basis. For such purpose and in accordance with relevant requirements under the Listing Rules, we are making available to you options for election of means of receipt of future Corporate Communications as detailed below. Furthermore, even if you had previously made an election of means of receipt and language of Corporate Communications at the request of Paliburg under other circumstances, you are hereby invited to make an election again as your previous election will be disregarded.

You may choose to receive future Corporate Communications: (i) by electronic means through access to Paliburg’s website at www.paliburg.com.hk; or (ii) in printed version. If you choose to receive printed version, you may also select printed copies either in English version only, or in Chinese version only, or in both English and Chinese versions. Shareholders are encouraged to select the option of electronic means communication, which will help reducing paper consumption and saving printing and mail costs for Paliburg.
